International Coach Federation Chapters to Host ICF on Tour: Coaching Beyond Boundaries

Coaches from Europe, Middle East and Africa plan events to raise awareness of coaching and its benefits.

Brussels, Belgium—Thirty one International Coach Federation (ICF) Chapters across Europe, the Middle East and Africa will host ICF on Tour: Coaching Beyond Boundaries, September 21 – November 26, 2015. The two-month event, designed to raise awareness of professional coaching and its ability to contribute to a thriving society, takes place in conjunction with ICF's yearlong 20th-anniversary celebration. ICF on Tour counts 36 events that will relay in 31 countries in EMEA.

"In a turbulent world that's facing social, political and financial crises, ICF coaches are passionate about making a difference and spreading community, care, love and respect," said Isabelle Maes, ICF's Senior Regional Service Centre Manager for EMEA. "ICF on Tour is the result of more than 7,000 coaches choosing to join forces across national, cultural and linguistic boundaries and raise awareness of professional coaching."

ICF on Tour will include a variety of virtual and in-person events highlighting four key themes:

- Building organizational coaching cultures
- Executive leadership and Entrepreneurial Coaching
- The science of why and how coaching works
- The power and impact of coaching

ICF on Tour will kick off September 21, 2015, in Brussels, Belgium, with a daylong event featuring keynote presenters Caitlin Walker, the founding director of Training Attention, developer of Systemic Modeling and author of From Contempt to Curiosity, and Jean-François Noubel, founder of the Collective Intelligence Research Institute.
